

I strongly oppose allowing the US government to tap internet connections as it does phone lines. This is a gross violation of privacy.